The Magical Bubble Lodge at Bois Cheri

The Bubble Lodge at the famous Domain of Bois Cheri offers a truly unique experience in the heart of an historic tea plantation in the shade of the trees on the shore of the tranquil lake.

Bois Cheri is located in the central highlands of the island, just a short drive from the South Coast, and close to the sacred crater lake of Grand Bassin.

This eco-accommodation comprises several self-contained, renewable transparent bubble-styled structures that includes a living/dining room, bedroom and a private bathroom.

The lodge is ideal for a couple, or a family with up to 2 children, or a small group of friends.

The comfortable sleeping quarters feature a queen sized bed and air conditioning and the living space includes a sofa bed and amenities for making tea and coffee.

The bathroom is equipped with eco-facilities, including an open-sky shower. Housekeeping services are provided daily, and the Domain offers 24-hour security.

Guests at the Bubble Lodge can enjoy a private breakfast and gourmet dinner at the Bois Cheri restaurant with the services of a dedicated waiter, and of course sample the delicious teas on offer.

Guests can also relax and soak up the ambience at the bar on the estate. Souvenirs can also be purchased at the gift shop on the Domain so you can have fond reminders of your stay.

The estate offers a range of activities including hiking or cycling through the Domain, and fishing, pedal-boating, and canoeing on the lake. If you are looking for a more adrenaline fuelled activity you can also try quad biking.

For a more relaxing activity, take a gentle stroll through the Domain and around the lake and breathe in the fresh air, gaze upon the majestic trees and encounter the wildlife, including deer, black swans, ducks and guinea fowl.

While vacationing on this famous tea estate guests should also not miss the opportunity to take a tour of the tea factory and museum, with a tasting of the fragrant teas included.

Just three kilometres away, golf enthusiasts can visit the spectacular Avalon Golf Course (for a fee). Bois Cheri is also just five kilometres away from the sacred crater lake and Hindu temples of Grand Bassin.

This tranquil location is an excellent place to visit for quiet contemplation and prayer, and is visited by people of all faiths and none at all, and you may even see a few monkeys if you venture up the mountain.

The wild South Coast is a 30-minute drive away, home to the breath-taking Rochester falls, untamed coastline, secluded beaches and other tourist attractions like La Vanille Nature Park where you can hang out with some crocodiles! Out to the West you can hike through the Black River Gorges National Park and marvel at the waterfalls and endemic flora and fauna.

Bois Cheri is part of the famous tea route of Mauritius and you can visit the tea estates of Domaine des Aubineaux with its colonial house that has been converted into a museum, and endemic trees in the gardens.

And there is the Domaine de Saint Aubin, where you can take a guided tour of the sugar factory, visit the tropical and spice garden and enjoy a typical Mauritian lunch at its highly recommended restaurant.

With so much to see and do in the Domain of Bois Cheri and beyond, you won't want to miss the opportunity to book your bubble so you can sleep under the stars, enjoy the spectacular views over the lake, and enjoy a truly magical eco-vacation!
